

Central Shenandoah EMS Council

EMS Training Specialist

THE CENTRAL SHENANDOAH EMS COUNCIL IN STAUNTON, VA HAS OPENINGS FOR FULL TIME EMS TRAINING SPECIALISTS. RESPONSIBILITIES INCLUDE TEACHING AND COORDINATING BASIC LIFE SUPPORT AND ADVANCED LIFE SUPPORT INITIAL CERTIFICATION AND CONTINUING EDUCATION TRAINING PROGRAMS. THE EMS TRAINING SPECIALIST ALSO WORKS AS PART OF THE TEAM TO ESTABLISH AND MAINTAIN PROGRAM ACCREDITATION, DEVELOP REGIONAL PREHOSPITAL TREATMENT PROTOCOLS, COORDINATE REGIONAL PERFORMANCE IMPROVEMENT PROGRAMS AND COORDINATE REGIONAL EMS TEST SITES.

Bachelor's degree is preferred; Virginia EMS Education Coordinator endorsement (may obtain both within six months of employment); minimum Virginia Intermediate in good standing with the Virginia Office of EMS, Paramedic preferred; AHA BLS instructor and/or instructor potential is preferred but not required; ACLS, PALS, ITLS, and PEPP instructor and/or instructor potential is preferred; documented experience and/or current certification in adult education may be a substitute for some educational requirements; valid Virginia driver's license with good driving record.

- Starting salary: $30,000 – $38,000
- Competitive benefits package including:
  - Health insurance with dental and vision plans
  - Life insurance
- Application deadline May 23, 2014
- Questions? Call Matt Lawler at 540-886- 3676

Central Shenandoah EMS Council

2312 W. Beverley St.
Staunton, VA 24401
Attn: Matt Lawler
(540) 886-3676
www.csems.org

Submit resume and CSEMS employment application* by May 23, 2014

*Download application from Council website.